Making a world of difference

Mitigating emissions

- Since 1970, we've captured more CO<sub>2</sub> through Carbon Capture and Storage than any other company (e.g. nearly 7 million metric tons in 2019)
- Since 2000, we've invested more than $10B to research, develop and deploy lower-emission energy solutions
- $300M+ invested in biofuels research since 2010
- The Baytown Complex has reduced total emissions by over 35% since 2005

Building sustainability into major facilities

- Achieved LEED Gold Plus certification
- ExxonMobil's campus in Houston is 40% more energy efficient than typical U.S. office buildings
- 12% reduction of net freshwater consumption across our global operations* (2019 vs. 2010)

Converting waste to value

- Our Global Lubricants Operations Network earned a Zero Waste to Landfill, silver level, validation from Underwriters Laboratories
- Each year we divert more than 90% of lubricant operations-related waste away from landfills and redeploy it into new, productive uses
- Our 1, 4 and 5 quart lubricant bottles in the U.S. have 25% Post Consumer Resin (PCR), and we're assessing feasibility to high-grade PCR use globally
- Our lubricants plants implement initiatives, such as automation of shrink wrap and solvent recycling, to reduce operations-related waste

Innovating products with sustainability benefits

- A wide range of Mobil branded solutions can help improve fuel economy, energy efficiency or waste reduction
- Our Mobil EV™ offer can help our customers travel further between charges, reducing electricity needs
- MobilServ™ Cylinder Condition Monitoring helps optimize cylinder oil feed rates to reduce consumption and emissions for your fleet
- Our EAL line delivers excellent protection for equipment operating in environmentally sensitive areas
- Extended life lubricants such as Mobil SHC™ Gear 320 WT can help minimize the need for product and packaging disposal

Harnessing employee passion

- Employees lead site initiatives on energy saving and waste reduction (such as minimizing paper usage, promoting carpooling, and conserving electricity), and lead wildlife habitat and community education programs
- We have programs that help us improve plastic waste management in our operations and our employees are driving the efforts to find local solutions
- We believe in helping to improve the communities in which we operate through efforts such as United Way Days of Caring
