TITLE: R&D UPDATE

TITLE: Dr VIJAY SWARUP

TITLE: Vice President R&D ExxonMobil

TITLE: SOLVING THE DUAL CHALLENGE

TITLE: 5 KEY TAKEAWAYS

TITLE: 1. WE ARE EXPECTING 2 BILLION NEW PEOPLE

VJ: The dual challenge, it's used a lot but it's a pretty simple concept.

TITLE: GLOBAL POPULATION 2019: 7.5 BILLION

VJ: It's providing affordable energy to a growing population,

TITLE: GLOBAL POPULATION 2040: 9.2 BILLION

VJ: a population growing from 7 billion to 9 billion, while addressing the risks of climate change.

VJ: For that we think there's going to be a new technology set required.

TITLE: 2. AMBITION DRIVES INNOVATION

VJ: The European Union have set some lofty ambitions.

VJ: And from a technology perspective, lofty ambitions are a key component of driving innovation.

VJ: Ambition is going to be the catalyst for innovation.

TITLE: 3. EXXONMOBIL HAS CAPTURED MORE CO2 THAN ANYONE ELSE

VJ: Carbon capture and sequestration is a big piece of our R&D portfolio.

VJ: We've been doing it for over 40 years and we are the largest practitioner of carbon capture and sequestration.

VJ: We know it can be done safely.

VJ: We know that CO2 can be sequestered for decades.

VJ: Now the challenge we have is we have to come up with alternate technologies because carbon capture and sequestration is expensive and it is energy intensive.

TITLE: 4. SCALING UP FOR TECH IS THE HARD PART

VJ: The most common question I get in my role is:

VJ: Why is it taking so long?

VJ: Why can't we just solve it now?

VJ: We need new solutions, we need a new technology set.

VJ: And then it will take time to build it out at the scale we need.

VJ: That doesn't mean it can't be done.

TITLE: 5. GOOD RESEARCH REQUIRES OPTIMISM

VJ: I'm optimistic, I think it can be solved.

VJ: Optimism is, in my mind, an inherent element to being a researcher.

VJ: If the researcher isn't optimistic, probably not going to be a very good researcher.

VJ: Because a researcher will fail, far more than he will succeed.

VJ: And therefore it takes patience, it takes passion, it takes a little bit of stubbornness, in order to do it.

TITLE: FOLLOW OUR PROGRESS ON SOLVING THE DUAL CHALLENGE

VJ: Whose phone was it?

VJ: Find that guy! Whose phone was it?

VJ: Whose phone was that?

VJ: Oh! We've got the guilty party over there...

VJ: I was hoping it wasn't my watch.

VJ: I don't think I put my watch on airplane mode.
